

I am writing to file a complaint against Sinclair Broadcasting.

My understanding is that the airwaves belong to the public, and that it is the FCC's role to prevent their abuse by private interests. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Their recent and ongoing actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
